

Dear Kevin,

Our hotel was selected out of 250 Hilton Garden Inn's nationally to host our Regional Directors of Sales Annual Conference. Not only did our hotel and staff need to shine, but the events that we planned for these guests had to be perfect.

Marcia Krumheuer, our Catering Manager and myself went through many ideas for entertainment for the closing night's dinner; casino night, magicians, comedian, jazz trio, etc., nothing seemed to wow us, and if it did not wow us, how would we be able to wow our guests.

Then we came across your information. What a great idea and concept. Your bio made you look like the perfect fun and entertaining way to end a very intense two day workshop.

After promptly arriving and introducing yourself to Marcia and our Regional Director of Sales, Jeff Elstro you confirmed what kind of show we wanted: G, PG, PG-13 or R. This was very helpful because you never know what type of audience to expect. The show was hilarious. You had our Regional Vice President dancing like Britney Spears; people fighting for napkins which they thought were $100.00 bills. The show was funny, entertaining, and not once was there a lapse in time. It was a huge success.

Our CEO said he never laughed so hard in his life!

I cannot thank you enough in making the ending to our meeting such a success.

I would highly recommend you to any organization that is looking for fun entertainment.

Sincerely,

Cindi Bessette
